

BadgerNet Midlands Day

24th April 2018- Banqueting Suite, Council House, Birmingham

9.00-10.00	Registration and coffee
10.00-10.15	Welcome and Introduction to the day
10.15- 10.35	The National Maternity Transformation Programme: BUMP - Birmingham and Solihull United Maternity and Newborn Partnership – delivering safer care, better choice and improved outcomes for women through integrated, holistic care supported and enabled by regionalisation of maternity records. Mr Phill Lyddon: Director of Operations Birmingham & Solihull Local Maternity System
10.35-10.45	Questions and discussion
10.45- 11.10	Enhancing Digital Technology: a national perspective, supporting women and clinicians needs Julia Gudgeon – Clinical advisor at NHS Digital (@juliagudgeon) Roger Carter – Programme Manager Digital Maternity Programme (@daddyrog)
11.10-11.25	Questions and discussion
11.25-11.45	Mid morning Break
11.45-12.30	Regional single pregnancy/ birth record and portal solution options for mother and baby. This will include a discussion on entering, viewing, and accessing data for the purposes of clinical care and reporting for units using BadgerNet or any other electronic maternity record. Jane Stephenson: Programme Manager at Clevermed
12.30 – 13.15	Lunch

13.15-13.45	Reducing risk for emergency admissions in Maternity – standardised approach to maternity triage BSTOS (Birmingham Symptom specific Obstetric Triage System) Dr Nina Johns Obstetrician and CLAHRC Diffusion Fellow Birmingham Women’s and Children’s NHS Foundation Trust Professor Sara Kenyon – Professor in Evidence Based Maternity Care University of Birmingham
13.45-13.55	Questions and discussion
13.55-14.15	Regional Neonatal data quality and outcomes Dr Vish Rasiah: Consultant Neonatologist – Birmingham Women’s Hospital
14.15-14.30	Questions and discussion
14.30- 14.45	Mid-afternoon break
14.45- 15.15	Reporting services from the BadgerNet Spine- How information can be accessed for the purposes of reporting, analysis, studies, audits, etc. Peter Badger- Managing Director, Clevermed
15.15- 16.00	Questions and AOB